

Independent Scholarship Award: A Level English Literature

Bronze (Must Be Completed)	Silver	Gold
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evidence of notes taken from one biology related book, magazine article, talk etc. (preferably using the Cornell Notes System – see biology instructions in “Term 4 – new year 12 summer work”) • Complete B1 – B4 ZigZag learning grids 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evidence of notes taken from a range of biology related books, magazine articles, talks etc. (preferably using the Cornell Notes System – see biology instructions in “Term 4 – new year 12 summer work”) • Complete B1 – B4 ZigZag learning grids. • Complete the GCSE to A level transition worksheet. • Read and make notes on “the language of measurement” document. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evidence of notes taken from a range of biology related books, magazine articles, talks etc. (preferably using the Cornell Notes System – see biology instructions in “Term 4 – new year 12 summer work”) • Complete B1 – B4 ZigZag learning grids. • Complete the GCSE to A level transition worksheet. • Read and make notes on “the language of measurement” document. • Read and make notes on interesting articles from The Biologist (https://thebiologist.rsb.org.uk/biologist) • Choose and read a book from the RMGS biology reading list or complete a free FutureLearn course on a biology-related topic of your choice.