

Independent Scholarship Award: A Level German
Bronze (Must Be Completed)	Silver	Gold
1. Watch a German film and write a review of approximately 200 words. Try to write a sentence or two in German if you can! 2. Complete the grammar exercises in the grammar folder on Moodle. There are some explanations in the worksheets to help you with this, but it would help if you revise the Present, Perfect, Imperfect and Future Tenses, Word Order and Reflexive Verbs. 3. Watch (or listen to!) the news in German every week. Make notes on one story and note down at least 20 new words that you encounter. This website is really good for this: http://www.dw.com/de/deutsch-lernen/nachrichten/s-8030 If you find something that interests you, try to find out more information. Do note down new words that you encounter. Keep a record of these activities in your German folder.	1. Find a German song/band/artist you like and complete the gapfills until you can complete 'advanced' (or even 'expert'?!) https://lyricstraining.com/de/ 2. Spend 10 minutes trying to learn the German states https://online.seterra.com/en/vgp/3014 capital cities https://online.seterra.com/en/vgp/3189 and important cities https://online.seterra.com/en/vgp/3030 3. If you're not already signed up, join Memrise and take this course: https://www.memrise.com/course/61415/100-german-verbs-with-prepositions/ If you like, join this classroom so I can track your progress! https://www.memrise.com/group/402312/	1.
